Holidays to remember

We were cheated on our honeymoon! We booked 11 months in advance, and our reservation at The Cape Town Hotel was confirmed. We chose it because it was right on the ocean rather than on the touristy Harbour Beach. We arrived early and they served us breakfast before breaking the news. They had rebooked us at Arabella Sheraton: a hotel facing Harbour Beach. It was right in the middle of the business district and with all rooms offering wi-fi access and fax machines. It proved to be everything we didn't want in a hotel. We were looking forward to the holiday of a lifetime and had been saving every penny for it. I certainly did not expect to spend my honeymoon in tears.

Lucy, Cambridge

(The Sunday Times 20. 8. 2006, upraveno)

25 Why is Lucy going to remember her honeymoon?

Because:

- A) she stayed in a different hotel.

- D) she enjoyed all the modern appliances in her room.

Dear Miriam,

I'm 14 and my parents (my mum especially) are obsessed with the idea that I should be the first in the family to go to university. I really try my hardest and get a lot of Bs and Cs and believe me it's not that easy. But they keep pushing me to be like my cousin in the year below. He gets As in everything. But I am different. None of my friends' parents make them feel like a loser. It's so unfair. What can I do?

Melanie

26 Why did Melanie write the e-mail?

- A) to complain about her cousin
- B) to explain her bad results at school
- C) to talk about her plans to go to university
- D) to get advice on how to react to her parents

A dream come true

Many young boys dream of becoming another Pelé or Beckham – a world football legend. For Joachim Owusu-Ansah, his dream seems to be coming true. Major football clubs like Manchester United are already showing great interest in him. But why is this so amazing? Well, Joachim is only 15 years old. He's the young player every European team wants. In fact, when he was 14, Inter Milan wanted him to play in Italy. Joachim wanted to go, but he had no choice, his mother made him stay at home and finish school.

Joachim came from a poor village in Africa. His father ran away before he was born, and it was difficult for his mother to raise the child alone. She wanted a better future for him, so she applied for a special lottery and won a Green Card which allowed them to live in the United States. Joachim moved there at the age of 8 and then enrolled in school and began playing football with neighbourhood boys.

At only 8 years old Joachim showed natural skill. He was so good there was no challenge for him to practice with boys his own age – he always played with boys twice his age! Everyone knew he'd become a professional, but Joachim wasn't sure. But by the time he was 10, he'd decided to play professionally and began practicing every day. His favourite U.S. team was D.C. United and he wanted to play for them. Unfortunately, he broke his leg when he was 12 and spent several months not playing. But he got better, and shortly after his 14th birthday D.C. United noticed Joachim's talent and asked him to play for them. Joachim happily signed the contract.

Joachim's annual salary is $500,000 and he has a $1 million contract with Nike. But will he play forever? 'I sometimes think about going back to Africa. I could even start my own team there, coaching young players,' he said. 'But there's no money in Africa, and I want to continue to support my mother. So, I'll play for as long as I can.'

What's happening to my face?

As a teenager your body and life go through many changes. One result of these changes in your body can be acne – more commonly known as spots.

People (49) _____ a lot of money on things they think will make these spots go away. Most medicines only cover spots, or make them (50) _____ for a while, but do nothing to stop the cause of acne. People continue (51) _____ anti-acne products month after month and (52) _____ year after year. The problem is that every time they stop (53) _____ the product the spots return. What they (54) _____ to do is find out what the real cause of acne is and stop it.

Acne is caused by poisons, or toxins, which enter our bodies in almost everything we eat. Acne appears (55) _____ your body contains more toxins than your kidneys<sup>1</sup> and bowels<sup>2</sup> can remove. They are the two main parts of the body (56) _____ remove toxins and other waste products. Sometimes toxins come from (57) _____ fat in the food you eat. Having too many toxins can also be caused (58) _____ a food allergy or the hormones your body produces. And teenagers' bodies (59) _____ a lot of hormones!

Too many toxins means that your kidneys and bowels will have too much work (60) _____ and can become blocked, not functioning properly. When that (61) _____ your liver<sup>3</sup> has to help, and then it too becomes overworked. When your bowels, kidneys, and liver get overloaded your body will try to get the toxins out (62) _____ your lungs<sup>4</sup> and skin. This is when acne occurs.

So, if you think spots (63) _____ your only problem, think again; your liver, kidneys, and bowels are getting weaker every time you get acne.
